What's new with RHA

Community Council

Our Community Council has officially started meeting! Thank you to everyone who came to our first few meetings, and if you're interested in applying, be sure to DM us for more info!

Phillies Game

RHA got to take on game day! We took a group of residents to see the Phillies play at Citizens Bank Park. Even if the Phillies lost, it was still a winning night for us!

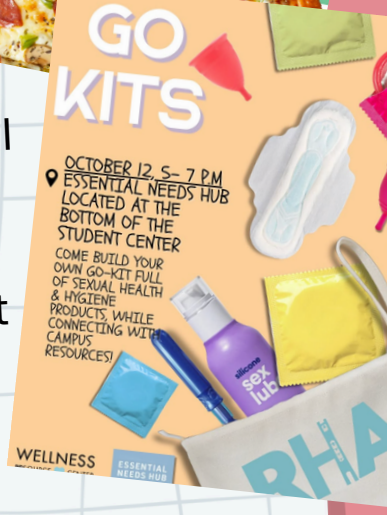

Upcoming Events

A Slice of Italy: Enjoy a free cooking class + info about Temple Rome! This will be 10/7 from 6-8 PM

Go Kits: Come build your own sexual health go-kits with FREE supplies and resources! This event will be on 10/12 from 5-7 PM in the Essential Needs HUb

NRHH update!

NRHH is volunteering at the Philly Bike Ride!

Philly Bike Ride is an annual 20-mile bike ride that brings together the city of Philadelphia and raises money to bring bicycling to everyone! Their goals are to foster a strong sense of community, encourage a healthy and sustainable lifestyle, and celebrate the city of Philadelphia with bicycles.

NRHH just welcomed the newest diamonds on campus!

Applications for NRHH are closed for the semester, but we will have plenty of updates on our events and members through our newsletters! If you're interested in staying connected with NRHH (and maybe applying next 👀) follow us @templenrhh on Instagram!

Positive Pumpkin Painting by NRHH!

NRHH is recognizing students on campus with a fun, fall craft event! NRHH will be decorating pumpkins and writing positive messages for students making a positive impact at Temple!

Member Spotlight

Kaylyn Green

Kaylyn serves as RHA's Director of Leadership and Advocacy. She brings so much passion, creativity, and energy to everything she does for RHA. From leading our Community Council to helping plan upcoming events, she is always finding new ways to get residents involved and make our community better. We're so lucky to have Kaylyn on our team and are grateful for all the ideas, events, and fun she brings to RHA this year!

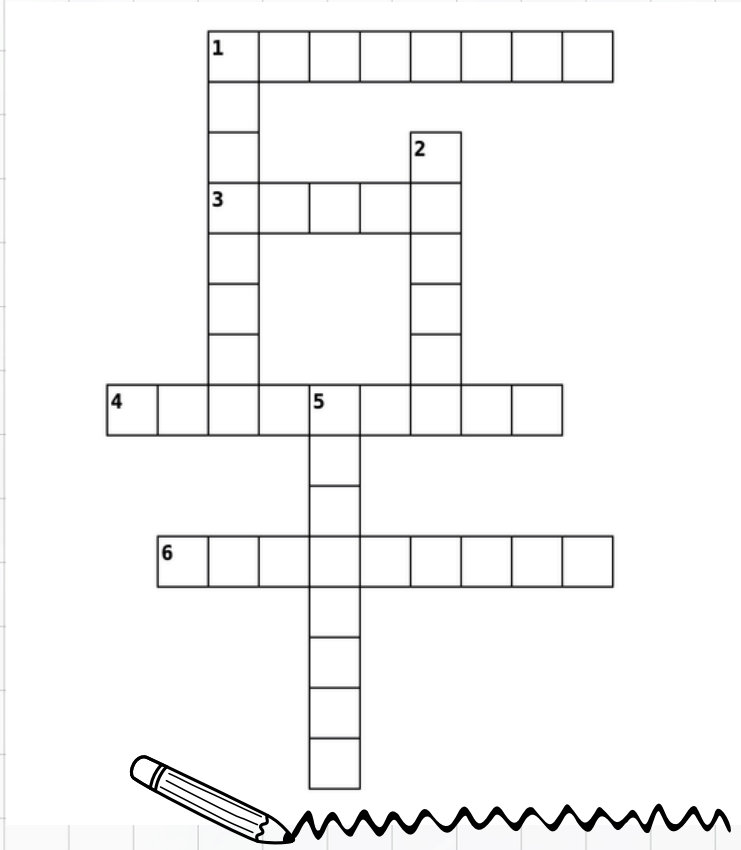

New Eboard Member

Arielle Timothy

Meet Arielle, our newest member of the RHA Eboard! She will be serving as our National Communications Coordinator In Training. She is a former member of our Community Council, which means she has so much valuable experience and knowledge on how to improve life for residents. We're so excited to have her as part of the team this year and look forwards to seeing all the incredible things she will do. Welcome Arielle!
