WELCOME HOME OWLS !

STAY IN THE KNOW WITH OUR MONTHLY NEWSLETTER

WHAT IS RHA?

So you've made it to the nest and you attended weeks of welcome but you're not ready for the fun to stop. Well you're in luck! Residence Hall Association, or RHA, is a student organization that works to advocate for on-campus residents wants and needs. We focus on hosting large scale events that keep the fun going all year round. Keep reading on to hear more about some of our awesome upcoming events, but be sure to follow @TEMPLEURHA on Instagram so you never miss an event. HOO knows, maybe the event of your dreams is coming soon...

WHERE HAVE YOU SEEN US?

RHA is always around! We host events in the residence halls, at the J&H dining hall, and off-campus. We had a great time meeting some of you at Temple Fest and at our first event BLOCK PARTY! Thank you to all of the students who made stuff-a-plush squirrels, designed pennants, told us what campus means to them, painted pots, and danced with us all night long. If you missed out, don't worry we have more where that came from!

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

NATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS COORDINATOR

Leo Sirriani is a senior secondary-education social studies major that has been in RHA since his freshman year when it was relaunched. Leo is our NCC, meaning he travels to our regional and national conferences and sits in board room to represent our university.

What does RHA mean to you? RHA means listening to your campus and looking out for them.

What has been your favorite memory?

Traveling to our first conference in Maryland.

Favorite event hosted? Coffee House!

Favorite movie? Holes
